Ilayda Turkmen

it63@njit.edu

🔗 Instagram , Linkedin, Github

Skills

Decision Making

Creativity

Time Management

Teamwork

Fast Learner

Computer Skills

Adaptability

Leadership

Ability to Work in a Team

Ability to Multitask

Languages

Turkish

English

Hobbies

I love being physically active and used to play volleyball in high school. When I get the time, I work out. I am a creative person and love photography & video editing.

Profile

I'm currently a freshman at the Ying Wu College of Computing at NJIT, majoring in Human Computer Interaction. I am highly motivated and very excited to be able to implement my passion for design in the technology field.

Education

Bachelor's, New Jersey Institute of Technology, New Jersey

September 2020 — Present

freshman in Human Computer Interaction UX/UI Design major

Extra-curricular activities

Youth Mentor

January 2019 — Present

Mentor groups of middle and high school students in regard to their personal growth academically, socially and culturally.
Document progress of every student, arrangements for events, and preparation of presentations
Organize and lead weekly activities, weekend programs, and camps
Attend weekly meetings with 2 other mentors to improve student success

Volunteer at Advocates of Silenced Turkey

December 2020 — December 2020

Organize and plan programs, seminars, protests, and competitions for human rights violations in Turkey.
Learn about ongoing violations and persecutions in Turkey, develop strategies to end those violations, as well as present explanations and solutions.

NJIT WICS

September 2020 — Present

Support growing community of women studying in the fields of computing and technology at NJIT
Provide mentorship, and network at national conferences for undergraduate women students

Courses

HTML & CSS, New Jersey Institute of Technology

September 2020 — Present

Pyhton, New Jersey Institute of Technology

September 2020 — Present